

Hammet Memorial Award for Outstanding ACB Member
Association of Collegiate Branch
Southern Region of the American Society for Horticultural Sciences

Donor: Southern Region ACB funds

Background: The Southern Region Outstanding Collegiate Club Member Award was first presented in 1983. The award title was changed to the Hammet Memorial Award for Outstanding ACB Member in 1986. The award is named for Harold L. Hammet, who was Southern Region Secretary-Treasurer from 1975-1984.

Award: Plaque

Objectives: To recognize the outstanding club member in the Southern Region Association of Collegiate Branch.

Eligibility:

- 1) Member of a Horticulture club at a University of College within the Southern Region
- 2) Club must be a active member of the ACB of the Southern Region
- 3) The Outstanding Club Award is based on club activities, participation in Southern Region ACB activities, grade point average, work experience and community service.